1. The Photo

Every time I look at this photo in which I stood in front of the CCTV building with my favorite singer of all times – Mr. Smith, I feel so proud. I think that was the most memorable day in my life.

2. The Chance

I still remember that day. When I was in the Campus TV committee of my school, one day my teacher told us that we could interview a super big star – Mr. Smith.

At that time, Mr. Smith was the most famous singer around the world, many people were his fans and loved him dearly. I was so excited because I liked his music so much and I hoped that I could be the one to interview him.

3. The Interview

That day, I woke up very early and tidied myself up because I wanted to leave Mr. Smith with a good impression. I went to the CCTV building by bus and on the way, I received a message that I would be the one interviewing Mr. Smith. I felt so surprised and overwhelmed because my dream to interview Mr. Smith since I first became a fan of his was finally coming true! When we arrived at the CCTV building, I still thought it was impossible, I told myself ‘You are the best, just do it!’ while inhaling deeply.

4. The Singer

We went to the interview room where we would have the interview. That room was so much larger than the one we had at our school. Suddenly, I saw Mr. Smith sitting in front of the camera and someone was talking to him. At that moment, I thought it was so amazing and surreal. My teacher told me try to calm down and go prepare for the interview. She sat me in front of Mr. Smith and introduced me to him. I could not look him in the eyes because he had been my favourite singer for years and he was right in front of me! ‘Hi, nice to meet you. I am Mr. Smith, what is your name again?’ he said, smiling. ‘I... am... uh... Chris Wong.’ I was so nervous that I could not say anything. ‘Don’t be shy, just relax and enjoy the interview.’ Mr. Smith said.

5. After the Interview

I remember what Mr. Smith told me and in the interview I tried my best to do it well and I was surprised that I was not scared anymore during the interview. At last, Mr. Smith gave everyone a copy of his new album and took a photo with me at the door of the CCTV building. I never thought I could have his album handed to me by him and it is still on my desk now. When I was leaving, Mr. Smith came to tell me that I had done very well in the interview and that he wanted to see me next time I was so surprised to know that. No words could explain how thrilled and overwhelmed I was.

Although I still do not know whether Mr. Smith can remember me, I will remember this day for the rest of my life.
